A stale of a turnip was brought to the Times-Virginian office Saturday by T. W. Wooding, of Route 1. He got out of his garden spot, purple and perfectly shaped. It measured 10 inches in diameter and weighed 6½ pounds, over two feet in circumference. Wow.

Watseka, Illinois,
After Election, 1948.

Dear Editor:

If you will give me a little space I will pitch in my two-bits worth about the election.

First, I want to congratulate you for being the good sport you are for putting Mother Brightleaf's picture on the front page. That's the way it should have been all the while. Sure the women must have had an edge on the election then. It was reported that Mr. Dewey's mother said Tom was going to be beat and that she was right. Probably she thought the job was too big for Tom. Dewey said he was going to clean house. The Democrats cleaned House and Senate too, and that was before Dewey got to Washington. With all the odds showing against Truman, and many split three ways I couldn't see a ghost of a chance for him. Mrs. Freeman would say, "I don't care what the polls show, the people are going to vote for Truman, for they don't want to go back to 10 cents a bushel for corn and 2 cents a lb. for hogs. That was a good campaign slogan in the Middle West. We have a lot of good Republicans out here - they helped us get a Democratic Governor, which is not very common in Illinois.

Most all crops were better than average this year. With best wishes for all our old neighbors in Appomattox County,

Yours truly,
J. L. FREEMAN.

Reward for First Yank In Berlin Goes Unclaimed

NEW YORK.—David Kay, a man who never has got over the wonders of democracy, said that he probably would found a scholarship with the $1,000 reward he offered for the first American soldier to reach Berlin.

Kay posted his offer and another $1,000 for the first Russian soldier to reach Berlin, in the closing days of World War II.

A few months ago he was advised that the Russians had been unable to trace their first man. They suggested that Kay might want to contribute instead to the fund for rebuilding Stalingrad.

"I did so," Kay said. "Now the war department advices me it is impossible to trace the first American soldier.

"The Veterans of Foreign Wars made the suggestion that I found a scholarship for the son of a dead veteran. It sounds like a fine idea to me."

"I made the offer because I love this country. I was a Polish immigrant kid, now I'm a millionaire. Where else can that happen? Where else can you speak as freely as here and do the things you want to do?"

High School Chatter....

Hi kids!

Gee, do you realize we have only one more football game this season! What are we gonna do with our Friday night football games? The only consolation I can see for us is that we'll start having canteen parties again.

We surely had a bang-up game Friday night! It was a good game and we tied Clarksville,- but many of the boys were injured. Sam had to stay in the hospital from Friday night until Monday because of injuries. Henry Doss also was injured but was fortunate in not having to go to the hospital. A boy from Clarksville received a badly broken collar bone.

We hope that many of you will attend our last game, which is with South Boston Friday night. This promises to be a good game.

Did you know we have a junior varsity? Congratulations to them for defeating Presbyterian Orphanage by a score to 12 to 6 Monday night.

We are all so glad to see Josephine back, after being out a week with flu.

The F. F. A. boys had initiation of new members last week. The boys really looked funny dressed in overalls and big hats with handkerchiefs tied around their necks. They all carried their books around in an old sack.

Let's play a guessing game. I'll tell you about someone who goes to school and you can guess who it is. He is a very popular member of the Senior Class, is about 5' 9" tall and has brown eyes and brown hair - likes football very much and is a member of the football squad - likes to dance and comes to all of our canteen parties.

Now you should know who it is, but in case you don't, he is president of the Senior Class and also president of the S. C. A. If you still don't know, you'll just have to wait until next week for an answer.

Forestry Demonstration Here

Above: scene at the forestry demonstration held last Friday under the sponsorship of the Appomattox Lions Club. Nearly 100 attended, and picked up pointers on better forestry practices.

A demonstration on forestry improvement was held near here last Friday afternoon, under the sponsorship of the Lions Club, Ninety-one attended and were given timely instruction in selective cutting, reforesting, selecting seed trees and other practices. Among those handling the demonstration were R. P. Brierly, district forester; Ray Marler, service forester; and J. C. Hayes, chief forest ranger, and H. B. Pack, instructor in vocational agriculture. Contest prizes were presented to John P. Alvis, Lewis E. Dickerson and H. Lester Sears.

Of interest was a demonstration on estimating the age of trees, to ascertain the age of trees when they should be marketed,rate of growth, proper use of over-crowded trees that will die anyway, and when the tree grows fastest.

Another demonstration was on estimating the board feet in standing timber, and on selective cutting.

Forestry is a major occupation in this area and the project was of a marked educational value.

WE THE STUDENT BODY OF

Pamplin High

We the students of Pamplin High appreciate the splendid work our principal, Mr. C. F. Mohler, has done this year toward the improvement of our school. During the summer he did such work as painting the school and supervising the remodeling of our workshop. He is doing splendid work in organizing a Ruritan Club in this community.

We have organized a Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Walter Payne, Jr. We are also organizing a Beta Club with Mrs. Sarah Wayne as sponsor.

SPORTS

Pamplin participated in the F. F. A. volley ball tournament held at Concord, November the 8th. Pamplin's opening game was with Naruna, Pamplin being the winner, 21 to 11. The second game was played with Amherst, Amherst being the winner, 21 to 11.

There is no doubt in Pamplin's mind about both the boys and girls basketball teams this year. Both are following the coach's instructions, and in turn, hope for a successful year in basketball. The coach for the girls is Mr. C. F. Mohler, and for the boys, Mr. J. C. Thompson.

POEMS BY THE GRADES

STARS

Way up in the sky so far,
Every night I see a star,
And wonder what they're made up of,
And why they are so high above.

There they are, red,white,and blue
Shining down on me and you.
And when I see them everywhere,
I wish that I could be up there.

I see them almost every night,
Shining down so very bright,
In the morning they all fade away,
And don't shine any all that day.

When my journey comes to an end,
I would like to see them once again,
Shining way up in the sky,
When on my wings I go gliding by.

—By TOM HIX, 8th Grade.

AUTUMN

Leaves are falling, falling
Jack Frost is coming fast,
It sits upon the hillside
And on my window glass.
Squirrels have hidden their acorns,
And pumpkins are in the corn
All ready to make pies
On a cold and frosty morn.
Dahlias in the garden
Awaiting to be cut
Are saying: Autumn, Autumn
Is a beautiful month.

Tobacco Referendum Set For November 27

Ask Growers To Attend Meeting Wed.

All fire-cured tobacco growers are urged to attend a mass meeting to be held at the Court House on Wednesday, November 24, at 7:30 P. M.

Issues facing tobacco growers pertaining to supply and demand, 1949 acreage allotments, and price supports will be discussed by Congressman W. M. Abbitt, State Senator Chas. T. Moses, tobacco experts and warehousemen.

It is held to be vitally important that each fire-cured tobacco grower make a special effort to attend this meeting and get pertinent facts on the tobacco situation.

Three Clinics Announced For County

The Health Department has announced that a series of mass survey x-ray clinics will be conducted in A ppomattox County next week, in cooperation with the local Tuberculosis Association and physicians of the county. Whereas the clinics previously held here have been for the examination of people who either knew they had tuberculosis or had reason to suspect that they might have it, the clinics planned for this time are for all adults, the rank and file, white and colored, who feel well and appear to have good health. The purpose of these is to detect tuberculosis in its earliest stage, before the symptoms of the disease become evident. When discovered early, before the victim is aware of his infection, it is much easier to effect a cure and restore the individual to a useful, active life.

Up until very recent times there was a foolish idea of shame associated with such diseases as tuberculosis and cancer. Consequently, people affected with these conditions tried to conceal them. Fortunately that attitude has changed, so that now such diseases are looked upon as a misfortune but not a disgrace. However, many people still die needlessly each year either because they fear to learn the truth or because of indifference to it. It is urged that all avail themselves of this opportunity to share in the blessings of modern science. The examinations are free. It will not be necessary to undress. The clinics will be at the following places:

Appomattox, Theatre, November 22, 12 noon to 8 P. M.

Stonewall, Blankenship's Store, November 23, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Pamplin, School, November 24, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

ASK AID IN UPKEEP OF OLD CEMETERY

An appeal has been made by Mr. Andred B. Martin, head of a group seeking the upkeep of the old Cemetery near Concord Depot, known as the Dixon Cemetery. It is desired to have the cemetery cleaned up, and Thursday, November 25th has been agreed upon as a date for volunteers to come in for the job. Those unable to come may send contributions to George M. Evans, Treasurer, Concord Depot, Va.

Lists of fire-cured tobacco growers who are eligible to vote in the referendum on Saturday, November 27, 1948, to determine whether they want quotas on the 1949 crop are now being compiled by the County Agricultural Conservation Committee and are open for inspection in the county office.

The referendum was called in connection with the law which provides for quotas on the 1949 crop of fire-cured tobacco. However, quotas will not be in effect for 1949 unless approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum. John T. Hunter, chairman of the County Agricultural Conservation Committee, said "Any person who has an interest in the 1948 crop of fire-cured tobacco as owner, tenant, or share cropper is eligible to vote in the referendum. No person," he added, "is entitled to cast more than one vote even though he may be producing fire-cured tobacco in two or more communities, counties, or states."

As in the past, Mr. Hunter pointed out, growers will vote on one of three propositions: (1) Do you favor marketing quotas for three years, 1949, 1950, 1951? (2) Do you favor the quota for one year 1949, but oppose quotas for three years?; or (3) Are you opposed to any quotas?

If quotas are approved, farm acreage allotments will be continued and there will be small acreages available for adjusting old allotments and establishing allotments for farms on which no fire-cured tobacco has been grown during the past five years. Growers will be advised, as to their 1949 farm acreage allotments prior to the referendum.

The legislation authorizing quotas also provides for loans on fire-cured tobacco in 1949 at 75 per cent of the burley loan rate, if growers approve marketing quotas. Fire-cured tobacco loans will be made available on the 1949 crop at a level of 31.8 cents per pound since the 1948 crop was produced under quotas. The law provides that no loans or other price supports will be available on the 1949 crop if growers disapprove marketing quotas.

The polling places for the referendum are as follows:

Clover Hill District:
Hix's Store at Hixburg, and Old Court House.

Stonewall District.
Stonewall Voting Precinct, and Oakville School.

Southside District:
Appomattox Court House.

The polls will be open from 9:00 A. M. and close at 5:00 P. M.

Road Traffic On Increase

Traffic on Virginia's primary highways went up to an average of 11,477,044 vehicle miles daily during the fiscal year ended July 1, 1948, according to reports just issued by the State Highway Department.

Appomattox County's average daily travel was 49,423 vehicle miles.

Most congested spot in the state was Fairfax County, with an average daily travel of 590,063 vehicle miles.
